

Answer Detail

1. I intend for my creative work to be:

Question	Indication of a hobby	Neither a business	Neither
I'm not sure	Neither

2. When I offer my creative work:

Question	Indication of
I don't charge	Hobby
I never ask for money, but if someone offered a gift, I wouldn't say no	Hobby
I only charge for the cost of the materials	Hobby
I charge for the cost of the materials, plus a little extra to cover additional costs e.g. cover costs for petrol, electricity, tools etc.	Hobby
I charge much more than the cost of the materials and labour e.g. I cover my costs and make a profit	Business

3. My creative work is:

Question	Indication of
not for sale yet	Hobby sold to people I know personally e.g. friends, family	Hobby sold to the public e.g. at markets, online, retail, wholesale	Business

4. My creative work is advertised or promoted:

Question	Indication of
not at all	Hobby

to share my talent with others	Either to establish and sell in the marketplace	Business

5. I offer my creative things under:

Question	Indication of
I don't use a name for my work	Hobby my name e.g. Simon Smith	Either a variation of my name e.g. Simon Smith's cupcakes	Either a name other than my own that is not formally registered, like a label, website or brand	Either a registered trade mark or registered business name	Business

6. The time I devote to my creative work is:

Question	Indication of occasionally - only when I have spare time	Hobby when I can find time outside my full-time employment or responsibilities	Hobby more than my spare time and I've changed my job and family routine so that I can make my creative work	Either a lot - I'm spending every possible moment making it successful	Business

7. As part of my creative work, I keep records to:

Question	Indication of
I don't keep records	Hobby have them on hand if I need them one day	Either understand how much my activity costs me	Hobby manage my finances and keep track of sales and expenses	Business

8. Have you already registered for any of these for your creative work?

Question	Indication of
Australian business number (ABN)	Neither business name registered with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC)	Neither intellectual property (IP) e.g. trade mark, patent, design or plant breeder's rights	Neither goods and services tax (GST)	Neither pay as you go instalments (PAYG) to make tax payments	Neither none of the above	Neither